

THREE MISTAKES OF EDUCATION

The first mistake in Education is to separate learning from the body of the Earth; The second mistake is to separate learning from the body of the student; The third and most serious mistake in Education is to separate learning from the observation of the workings of the mind itself, as it learns to learn.