

(IMAGE: HELLS CANYON DAM—hands down, one of the ugliest structures in the world, blocking one of its most mysterious, beautiful & powerful rivers...)

Spring of Learning?

For the child, the journey from the spring of learning's single, clear, free-flowing braid to the vast complexity of the distant sea is the journey of a lifetime.

The teacher is the one who returns, both to safeguard the source of the spring, and to hasten the children on their way.