

ART IN AN AGE OF SPIRITUAL CORRUPTION, a manifesto

Art is not its content. Art is a way of being that attunes itself to the good, the beautiful, the harmonious. Militant resistance to all ugliness, to all violence, to all that dehumanizes the cultural landscape, is how Art like Science, is self-correcting, is self-purifying

Mountain farming community in the central Alps, under threat by Climate Change, Forest dieback, Neo-con landgrabs, and most especially, a more general crisis of meaning.
