

A sound, natural limit
in any system
is when there is no conflict
or contradiction
between what does
and what does not—
happen.