

(Photo: September Sunflower—North America)

A Poem, a Prayer, and a Sunflower . . .

Nature knows no conflict, no contradiction, no waste. The religious or spiritual life begins therefore not with any dogma or belief, but rather with the deeply held intention to live a life without conflict, contradiction, or waste.